

Piano Lessons with Mrs Gommon

Hello! I'm Mrs Gommon, and I'm delighted to offer individual piano lessons here at High Ash C of E School.

I have a BA(Hons) in Music and an MA in Community Music, both from the University of York, and over ten years' experience teaching piano lessons in schools. I especially love working with primary-aged children, and I've enjoyed watching many pupils who started out as complete beginners go on to grow in confidence and progress through the grades.

Every lesson is one-to-one, so I can tailor what we do to each child, but I also ensure that I teach all children music theory, technique, note reading, and of course, a wide range of pieces to enjoy playing. My aim is for every pupil to feel proud of their progress and to develop a real love of making music.
